PRESS RELEASE

BVSC and FC Northwest Announce Pre-University Travel Program

September 21, 2016: BVSC and FCNW are proud to announce a Pre-University Travel Program that combines the two Club's resources and talent. This program will bridge the gap and provide the opportunity to the Club players that are not REX, Prospects and/or Blizzard players.

The program's inaugural tournament will be the President's Day Tournament in Phoenix, Arizona February 17-20, 2017. This will feature the age groups U14 (2002), U15 (2001), U16 (2000), on both the female and male side.

There will be a Pre-University educational portion provided for the program in classroom sessions leading up to the tournament. These dates are to be determined. This component of the program will be overseen by Heather Jaques (General Manager, FCNW) and Tonya Derkson (Assistant Technical Director, BVSC) with the players and parents.

The technical part of the program will be overseen by each of the Club's Technical Directors and coaches. Administration of the Program will be overseen by Heather Jaques.

Players who would like to participate in the Travel Program will need to be a registered player for the Indoor season as well be invited into their Club's District High Performance Program throughout the fall/winter months. Schedule for the DHP program TBD.

The Tryouts will take place at Memorial Park (100 Sunset Blvd. Parking available at the YMCA Fermor or at Glenlawn Collegiate) on October 15th & October 16th.
